Project Update – Bluewhale Domain & Backend Integration

Highlights:

• Set up and configured the Bluewhale domain

• Connected the project domain in Vercel

• Converted key pages from static content to backend-driven content

• Implemented admin-based data management functionality

• Added subcategory organization and supporting backend models

• Verified smooth integration between the frontend and backend

Prepared by: Leo